What we are taking away

→ This information will inform the next phase of IW:LEARN

- Work session outputs / worksheets
- DIM Guidelines
  - Well received
  - Priorities identified
  - Some issues: Policies of implementing & executing agencies and how to find a compromise/middle ground
  - Consider
- Tools
  - Improve / streamline access points to LME information on IW:LEARN website
  - “Start here” – overview of resources on IW:LEARN website

- Ensuring sustainability after projects end
  - Plan for sustainability from the start:
    - Open data agreements
    - long-term maintenance of websites / data portals
    - using IW:LEARN bibliography & repository
  - Incentives → how to make sure people do this?
- Avoiding duplication
  - Databases – everyone builds their own atlas / portal etc.
  - Everyone has specific needs. How can duplication be avoided better?
  - Reporting on the same indicators by multiple institutions & projects
- Indicators
  - Add richness / context to guidelines
  - Purpose / benefits of common core indicators?
  - Linking with SDG targets

- Improving delivery of DIM documents
  - Format – reports are long and heavy
    - Leaflets? Checklist? Storymaps? Videos?
    - Training events?
- Institutional / organizational map or database of key institutions & stakeholders (“Who’s who?”)
  - Data providers
  - Government bodies
  - NGOs & industry
  - Legislation, policy (national, regional / global)

Suggested actions

- Provide workshop report and outputs to IW:LEARN and participants (who: PEMSEA)
- Tools
  - Check project profile and provide updates (who: Projects to IW:LEARN)
  - Contact IW:LEARN to request assistance on specific needs for tools (who: Projects)
  - RSS feed/link on news (LME-level, project level), documents, events (who: Projects)
- Indicators
  - Continue the discussion (who: IW:LEARN)

Any other discussion points or questions

Over to you

- Of all the tools and ideas shared here, what 3 things are you putting in your suitcase for your journey back and why?
- What next steps will you take?
- What questions are still not addressed?
- Any other comments for IW:Learn?
